The Oregon Clinic opens additional Neurology Clinic West Division

PORTLAND, OR – (June 2, 2009) – The Oregon Clinic, Neurological Clinic West Division announces the opening of a new office today on the Providence St. Vincent Medical Center campus. The office is located on the fifth floor of the Mother Joseph Plaza building, 9427 SW Barnes Rd., in Portland.

The Oregon Clinic physicians who are located at The Neurological Clinic West Division include: Dr. Leslie McAllister, Dr. Hubert Leonard, Dr. Joshua Ramseyer and Dr. Kyle Smoot. These physicians, along with Dr. Daniel Gibbs, will continue seeing patients at their existing office at 1040 NW 22nd Ave, Suite 420, in Portland on the Legacy Good Samaritan Hospital campus. Appointments for both locations may be scheduled by calling (503) 488-2424.

Dr. McAllister said she expects the new office to be of greatest benefit to The Oregon Clinic's west-side patients.

"The new location will provide our west-side patients with convenient access for office appointments and the benefits of a wide range of services offered on the Providence St. Vincent campus," she noted. "We look forward to being part of the Brain Institute's ongoing efforts to become a center for excellence in facilitating and improving care and treatment of patients with neurological conditions."

The Neurological Clinic West Division physicians bring a wide range of experience and sub specialty training to the Providence location. These board-certified neurologists will offer consults and office visits to patients with a wide range of neurological conditions, including: headaches, Parkinson's disease, seizures, peripheral nerve disorders, multiple sclerosis, and sleep problems. The physicians also perform state-of-the-art electrodiagnostic testing.
